

Green Gold: An exhibition of woodcuts of Latin American banana workers by Jan Nimmo with a film screening of Pura Vida?, Nimmo's second film about the banana trade.

This film looks at the devastating impact that agro-chemicals, used to grow bananas and pineapples, is having on workers, communities and the environment.

Exhibition runs from 27th February to 5th March at The Byre Theatre, St Andrews. www.byretheatre.com

Reception with Fairtrade wine on Level 4, 27th February - 7.00 - 7.30pm followed by a film screening of Pura Vida? and a talk by Jan Nimmo, 7.30 - 8.30pm in the Studio Theatre, Level 4, Byre Theatre.

The screening event is free but space is limited so please contact 01334 473648 or chair@fairtrade-standrews.org.uk

This event has been organised by St Andrews Fairtrade Town Campaign as part of Fairtrade Fortnight and is sponsored by Scottish Coop (Eastern Area).

For further details about local plans to celebrate Fairtrade Fortnight visit www.fairtrade-standrews.org.uk

For more information about Jan Nimmo's work with Latin American banana workers visit www.greengold.org.uk

GREEN GOLD

a film screening and exhibition of works by Jan Nimmo

27th february - 5th march 2007
byre theatre, st andrews

